

SETTING THE SCENE

AS our technology becomes more popular and recognised we are now seeing more commercial projects get in touch with the team which is what happened when the owner of a boutique hotel chain in Blackpool contacted us when they were looking at their energy consumption and how to improve their water heating demands.

After the initial conversation, the chain worked with one of our registered installation partners to undertake the survey and installation. With the team on site to

BMTB 200x3
Commercial 2018
UK

decommission the previous, ageing solution with a set of energy efficient BMTBs the hotel now relies on our products to meet the hot water demands of their customers, the chain now utilises our BMTBs in a number of their sites in the UK.

